My Dearest One and Only Vernon:

Thou ~~has~~ ~~longed~~ to be in thees arms once again, but since thee does not love thou any longer ~~so~~ thou must leave the country. Thou's memories are now straying back to the day we were ~~engy~~ engaged. Thee kissed thou under the peacock tree ~~and~~ tenderly and whispered thou's favorite words "I think of you"! Tso great was thou's happiness when thee was election King of Lava Hot Spring. Now I have a ~~poe~~ poem for thee:

FOREWORD

Here, where covered wagons once rolled across the desert, now stands the biggest high school in the state of Idaho. Our faithful Indian guide, Oske Ow Ow, peeking from the back of the covered wagon in our cover, is still guiding us forward to the future and our destinies.

SCHOOL LOYALTY

We're loyal to you, Poky High,
We're the Red and the Blue, Poky High.
We'll back you to stand 'gainst the best in the land
For we know you have sand Poky High. Rah! Rah!
So give us first place, Poky High
And give us the prize, Poky High.
Our team is our fame protector.
On, on for we expect a victory
For our Poky High.
Che He Che Ha; Che ha! ha! ha!
Che He Che Ha; Che ha! ha! ha!
Poky High! Poky High! Poky High!
Bring out that dear old flag of the Red and the Blue.
Bring out your sons and daughters fighting for you
Like men of old and giants, placing reliance,
Shouting defiance, Oske Ow Ow!
Amid the sage brush hills that cover our land
For honest labor and for learning we stand
And unto thee we pledge our hearts and hands.
Dear alma mater, Poky High!

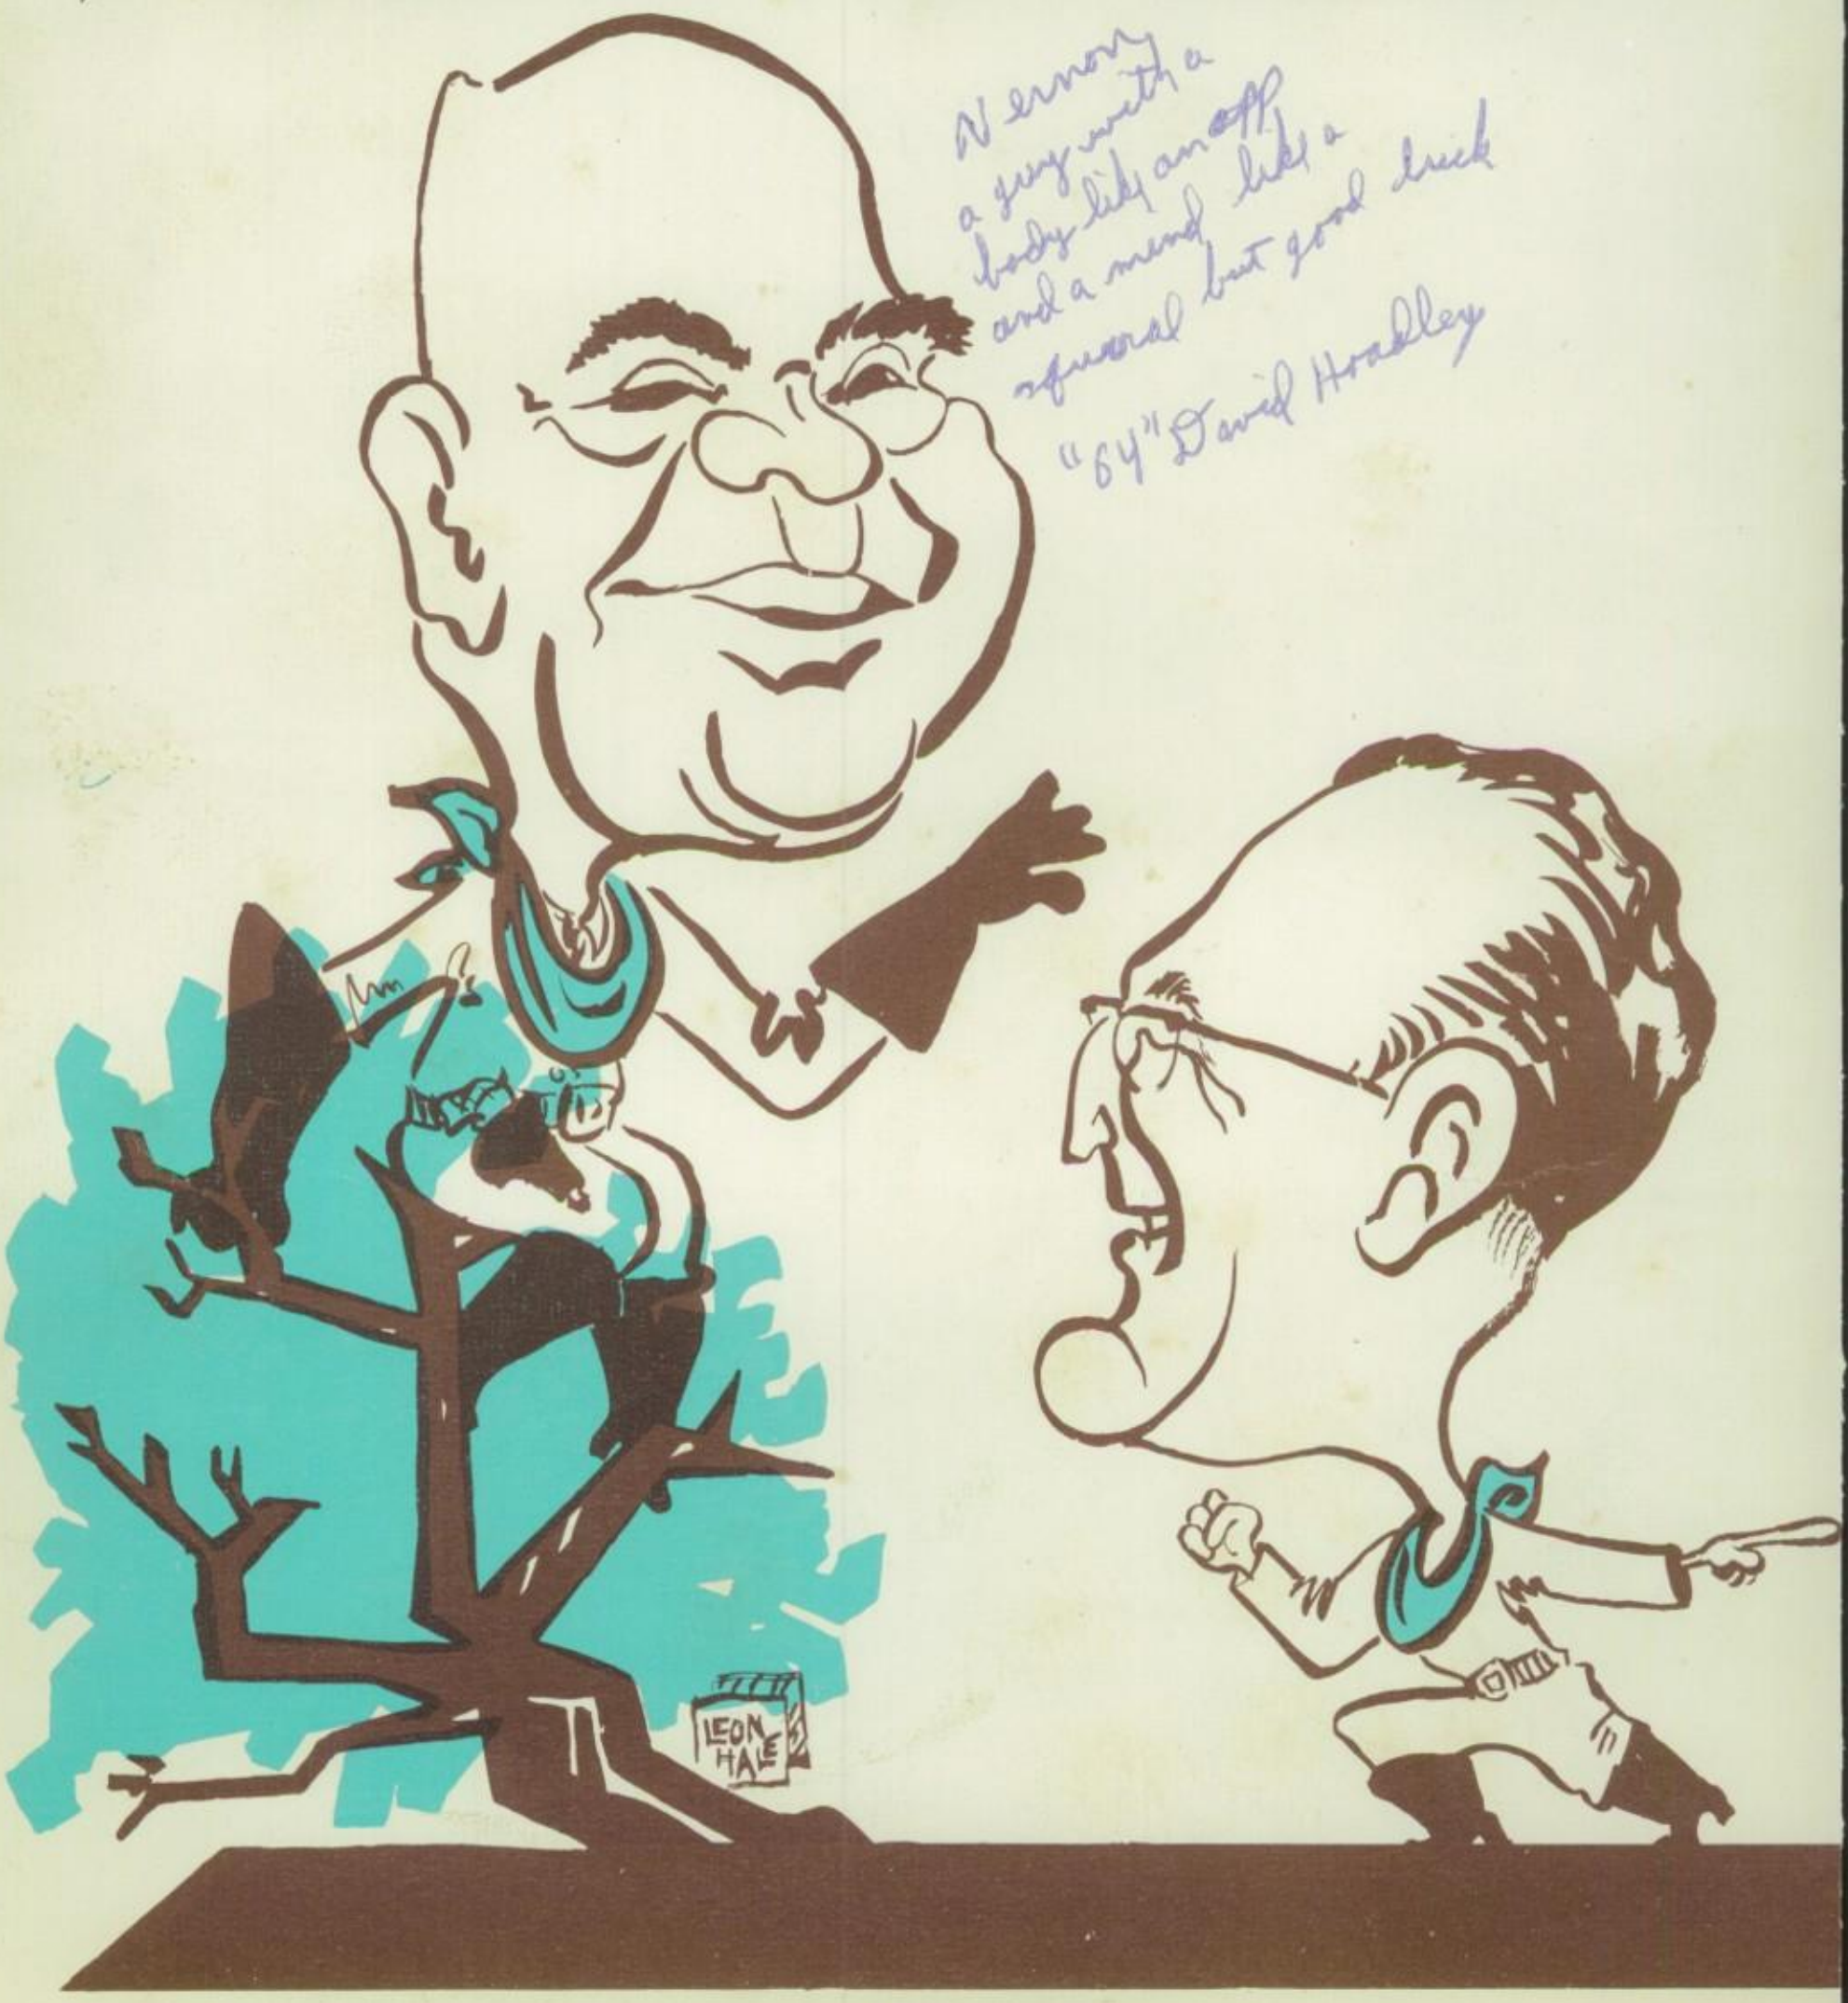
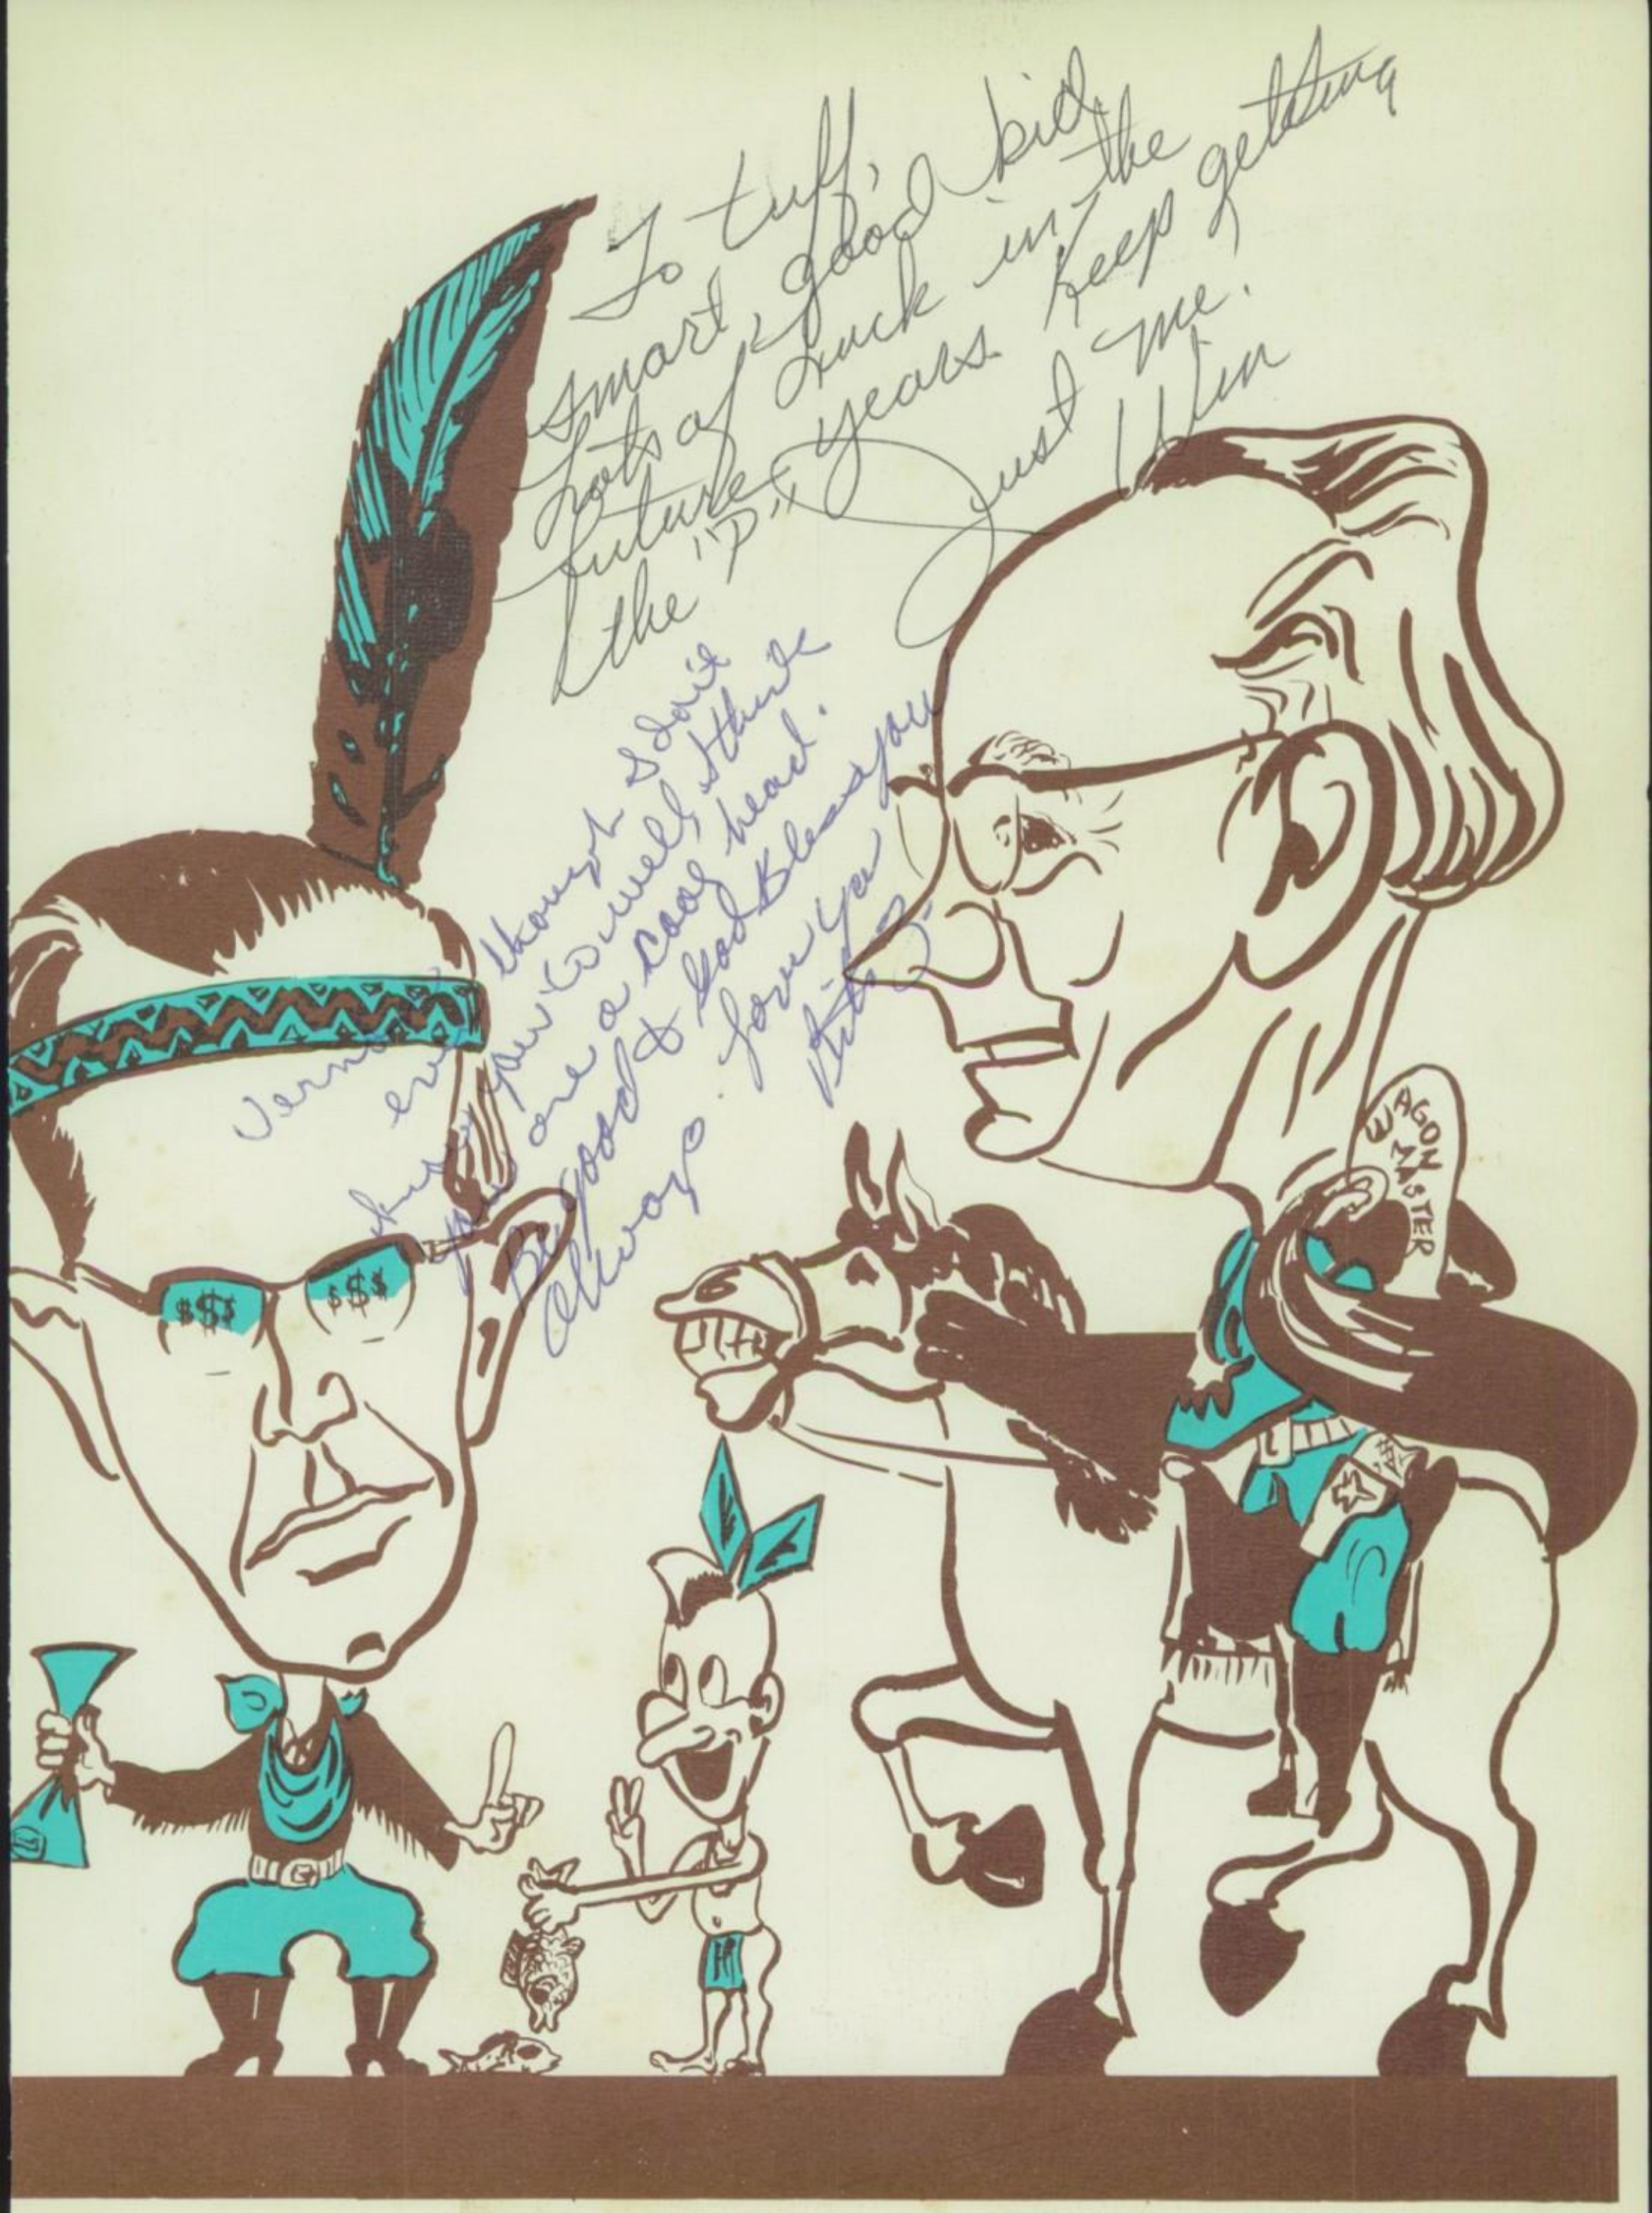
HIGH SCHOOL

WAGON MASTER

Just as every wagon train needs a wagon master to keep each wagon in line so our school needs a principal to help us along in our educational road. The 1962 Pocatellian Staff dedicates this Pocatellian to Charles H. Teuscher, our principal.

ADMINISTRATION





To tuff,
Smart, good kid.
Lots of luck in the future. years. Keep getting

SOLVES ADMINISTRATIVE PROBLEMS

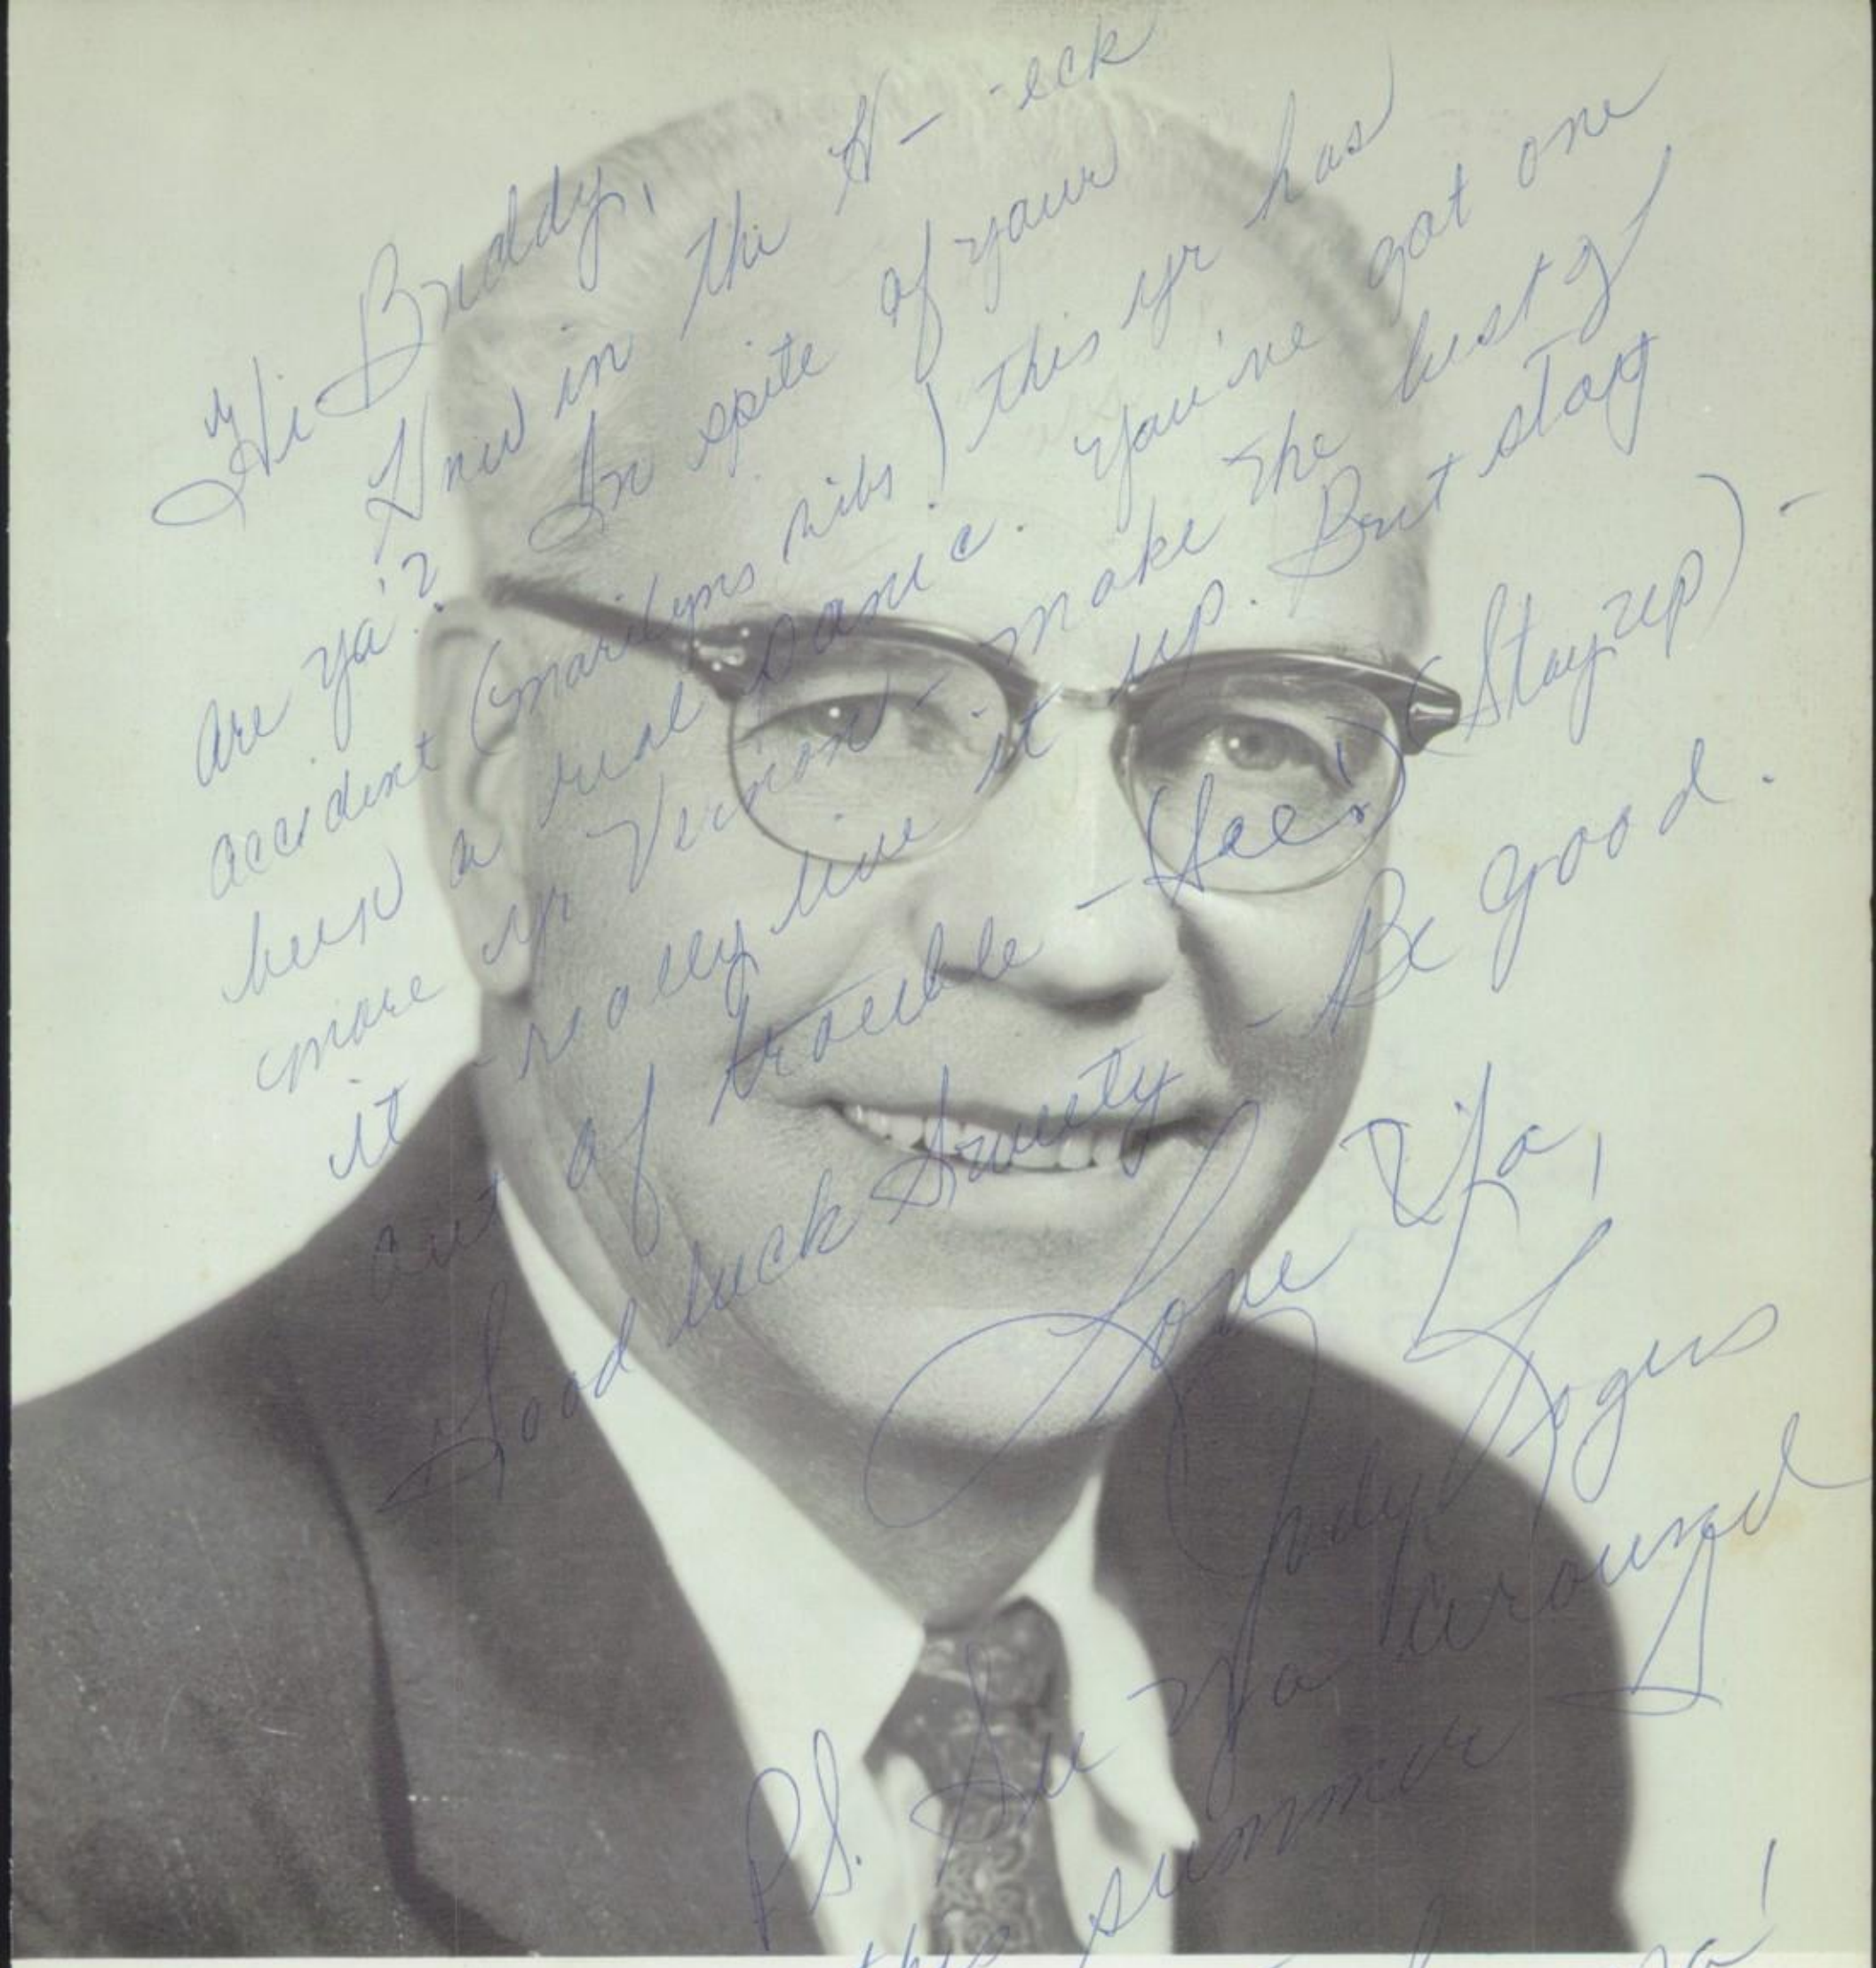
The Board of Trustees of Class "A" School District No. 25, elected by the people of Pocatello, stands ready to devote long hours to serve the people of the community, in the furthering of education. To carry out policies set by the trustees stands the Administrative Council composed of the principals, superintendent, and assistant superintendents of our local schools.

Members of the Administrative Council are, left to right, first row— Stanford Pugmire, principal of Franklin Junior High School; Don Cooper, principal of Lincoln Elementary School; Julia Reay, principal of Lewis & Clark Elementary School; Beatrice Pilon, principal of Hawthorne Elementary School; Frances Murray, principal of Whittier Elementary School; Rulon Ellis, assistant superintendent; Vern Tomlinson, principal of Tyhee Elementary School. Second Row—Virgil Allen, assistant superintendent; Parker Richards, principal of Jefferson Elementary School and Emerson Elementary School; Murray Layne, principal of Tendoy Elementary School and Roosevelt Elementary School; Charles Teuscher, principal of Pocatello High School; Ron Reed, principal of Alameda Junior High School and Alameda Elementary School; Art Cullen, vice principal of Alameda Junior High School; Lionel Bowser, vice principal of Pocatello High School. Third Row—Harry Woods, vice principal of Hawthorne Junior High School; Claude Wilcox, principal of Bonneville Elementary School and Washington Elementary School; Dorcey Riggs, superintendent; Sam Fairchild, principal of Irving Junior High School; Ferris Edgley, supervisor of music; Tom Strah, principal of Hawthorne Junior High School; Lewis Dunn, principal of Greenacres Elementary School.



HEADS FACULTY

The year 1961-62 has been a good school year. In spite of the overcrowded conditions, we have found our way through the crowds to our many destinations and learned our lessons in rooms often filled to the walls. I appreciate our students' help in making it a successful year. A salute to our teachers is in order. They, too, spent long hard days to make it a worthwhile year. When students and teachers work under the stress brought on by our crowded condition and end up with a good school year, credit is due both.

I sincerely thank both students and teachers for all the fine things that have been done to make possible another successful year at Poky High.

LEADS STUDENTS

How does one say farewell to a student body which he has come to respect, admire, and cherish? I find this task very difficult. Words are very inadequate; I can only say that it has been an honor as well as a privilege to have led such a group.

Underclassmen, you have a great potential as well as a grave responsibility; for squarely upon your shoulders rests the responsibility of providing leadership for the immediate future. I am not speaking of the leadership of those whom you elect, but rather of the individual leadership which is the responsibility of each one of you. How well you fulfill this task, in a sense, will determine your success in high school. Use it wisely.

It is my sincere hope that all of you find happiness, purposefulness, and the richness of human experience of which you are so deserving.

Sincerely yours,
MARVIN BROWN

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

The student body president and vice-president are elected in an all-school election held in the spring and take office the following fall. The student body president appoints a student body secretary, a treasurer, and a historian with senate approval.

A MAJOR BRANCH—THE SENATE

Ralph Comstock
President of the Senate

The membership of the Senate is composed of three students elected from each class, the president of Girls' Council, the president of Boys' Council and the faculty advisor. The student body vice-president serves as president of the Senate. Among the major duties of the Senate are appropriating money from the general fund of the student body for school needs and originating and providing plans for the raising of money for student body use.

THE JUDICIAL BRANCH—THE COURT

Ray Yamauchi
Chief Justice of the Court

Vern,
I have really enjoyed knowing you. I hope
we can always be friends.
R. Swart

The School Court is the judicial branch of the school government consisting of a chief justice, five senior justices, four junior justices, and a clerk. The chief justice is elected by the student body, and all the other justices are appointed by faculty recommendation. The main functions of the court are deciding constitutionality of laws and acts of student government, revising parts of the school constitution, and prosecuting violators of school law.

Vernon,
To a real good looking guy at P.H.S. I wish you the best of luck at everything - maybe we can get some good grades next year.
Hope to get to know you a lot better.
lots of luck
Lauralee
"63" I hope

THE LARGEST BODY--THE HOUSE

Ron Christensen
Speaker of the House

Every student is represented in the school government through the House of Representatives. At the beginning of the semester a representative is selected from each homeroom to serve in the House, whose presiding officer is elected by the student body the preceding spring. The main function of the House is to propose bills and to vote on bills passed by the Senate.

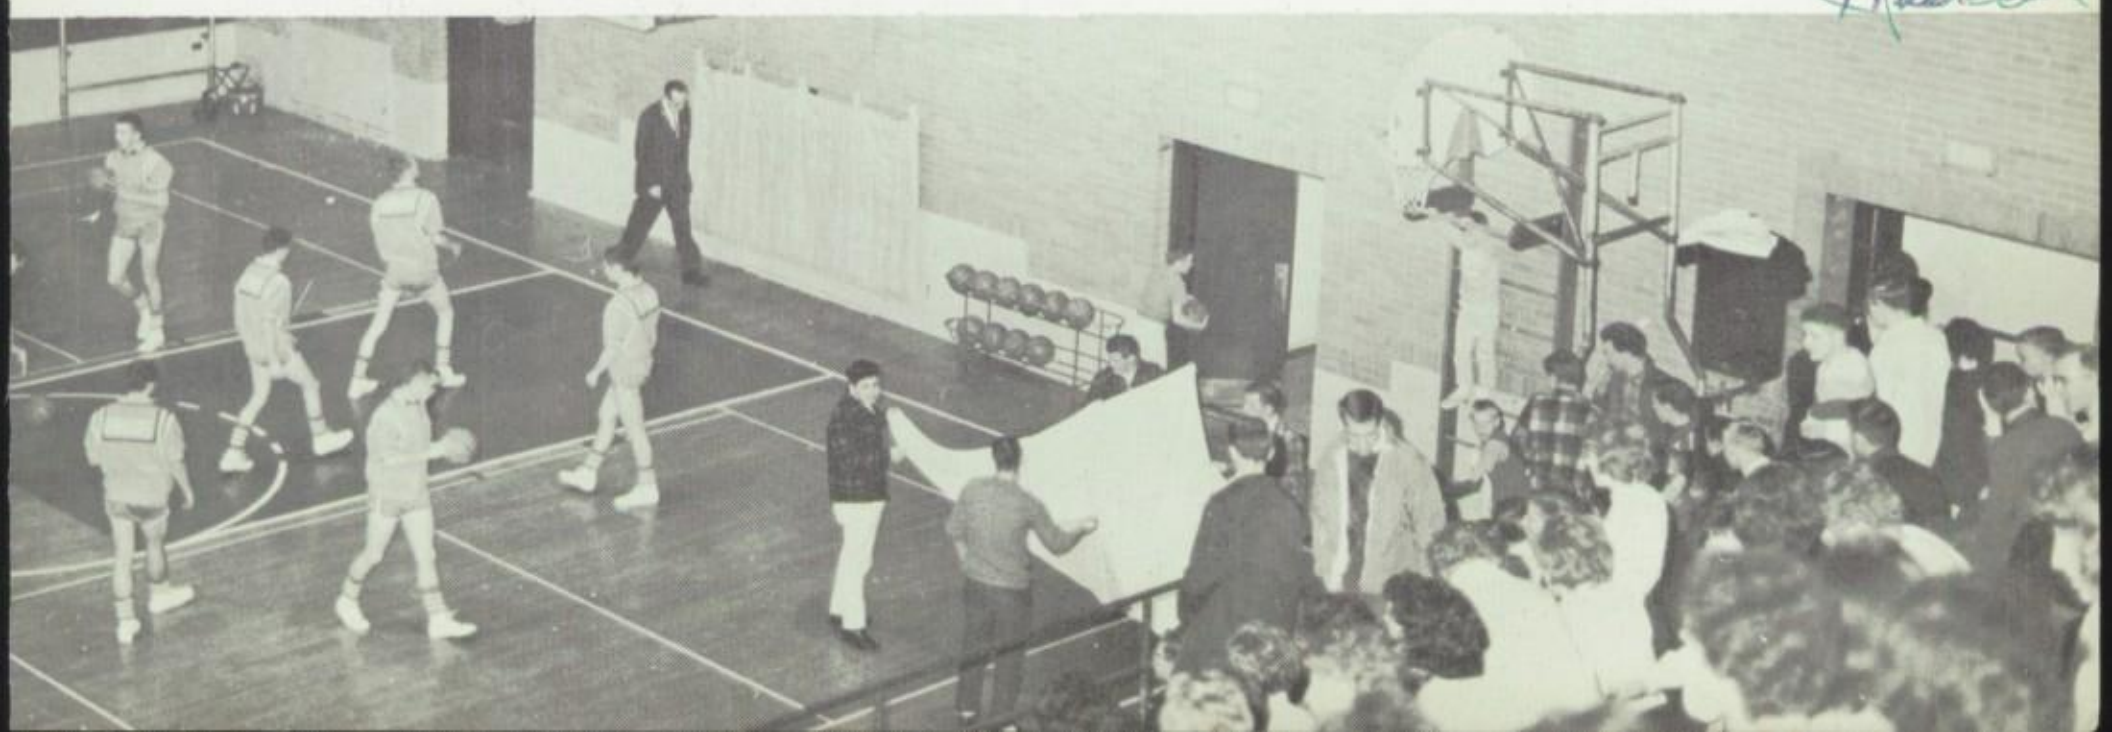
The purpose of the Department of Executive Press Co-ordination is to inform students of the functions and activities of student government by articles in the school paper, printed bulletins, and special informative assemblies.

The student body president appoints a secretary as head of the department. He has a staff of two senior and two junior officers, as well as several department workers.

AID COMMUNITY

The flood disaster this spring gave Poky students an opportunity to serve their community. Here are Pat Hall, Marvin Brown, John Clawson, Bill Busacker, Wayne Hall, and Bill Sperry amid the mounting number of pop bottles collected to raise money for the relief fund. Mr. Clawson is chapter secretary of the Red Cross, and Mr. Hall is president of the Pocatello Chamber of Commerce.

Another fund-raising project is shown by this picture in which fans are tossing coins into a sheet. Profits from some games and dances were also donated.



CASSES

S represents the social activities in which we have engaged.

E is for our enriching experiences.

N represents the never-ending friendships we have gained.

I is for the inspiration we have received from our teachers and parents.

O is for our onward efforts. May they never cease.

R represents the rich remembrances of our wonderful High School Days.

This is the Class of '62. We have seen and done many things at Poky High. We cheered our basketball team on to win the State AAA title. We battled a flood and held our own. We helped gain the passage of the bond issue for the coming Highland High. We contributed many great leaders to the Poky High annals.

We are leaving now to forge ahead. We're on our own but we shall establish goals and accomplish them. This is a Great Age and we are proud to be a maturing part of it! But most of all we're proud to be of the Class of 1962!

Even though our Red and Blue Day did not have the brightest weather possible, it was one that we will always remember in years to come with Nickie Jelaco reigning as Junior Princess. Then came the highly successful class party. Through the efforts of all, we presented a most enjoyable assembly. The outstanding event of the whole year was the marvelous Junior Prom. This has really been a year full of memories we will always carry with us. Though this year is coming to a close, we can always look forward to an even better one if we never rest until the good is better and the better is the very best.

Eager—to be accepted by the throngs of upperclassmen.
Confused—at the varied directions, numerous halls, and classrooms.
Impressed—with the study courses and competent faculty.
Proud—at last, to be part of Poky High.

These sentiments would possibly express the feelings of the majority of the Sophomore Class of 1961-62. Selection of officers was one of the first activities held. On traditional Red and Blue Day, lovely Daphne Dixon reigned as Sophomore Princess. The Co-Ed, held at the Student Union Building at ISC, was another exciting highlight. Who could help but have a good time with "Blue Hawaii" as theme for the Sophomore class party? We, as Sohpomores, have tried our best to prove our worth to upperclassmen and faculty. We only hope that this goal was attained.

Vern
To bad we only met this year. We could've had a lot of fun; oh well wait till next year!

Jeff Edwards

Dear Vern
I think you are really a good kid. To bad it couldn't work out. But I guess that's life. I wish you the best of everything you do in the future. Hope to see you next year. Have some fun this summer and I will have to get together with you at a good party. I read this and always

Love ya

I . . . SOLEMNLY STATE

Marvin Brown takes his oath as Student Body President, promising to uphold the government of Poky High.

Ralph Comstock, as Vice-President, will preside over the Senate.

These are the officers chosen by the students of Poky High as their representatives. On them rests the responsibility of keeping our school government running smoothly.

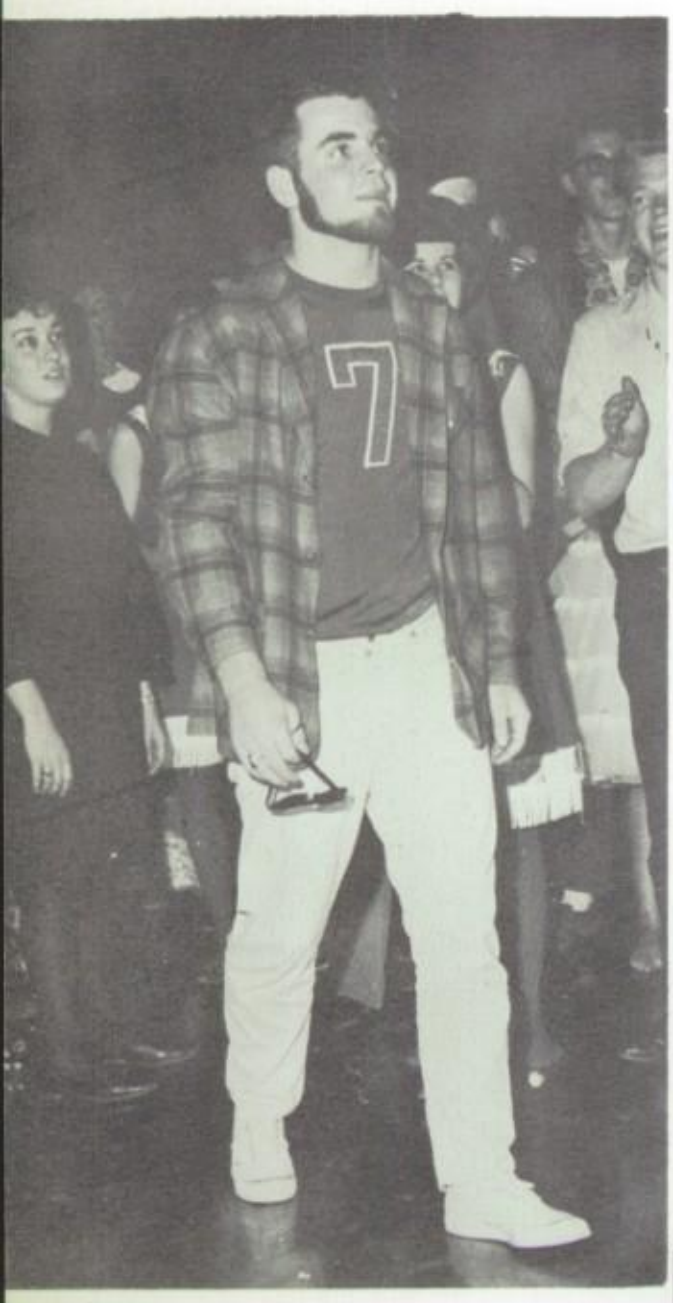
It is the duty of Chief Justice Ray Yamauchi to head the School Court.

Just as the vice-president presides over the Senate so Speaker of the House, Ron Christensen, presides over the House of Representatives.

POKY CELEBRATES

Red and Blue Day royalty for 1961 were Queen, Kathy Chambers; Second Senior Attendant, Margaret Streibal; First Senior Attendant, Judy Romney; Junior Princess, Nickie Jelaco; and Sophomore Princess, Daphne Dixon. They reigned over the day's activities as well as the dance that evening, traditionally the first of the school year.

"I DREAMED I WORE..."



The Senior Class Party, held in December, had the exciting theme "Mardi Gras." The costumes ranged from Santa Claus suits to top hats and tights. Various people attended from . . .

beat Louie Stauffer

to Big John, alias Larry Wellard and Kathy Donaldson

the Bearded Lady, Carl Raymond, and her favorite beau, Bill Pitchford . . .

CANDY CANES HOP

wonder what Teresa Maguire is holding over Bob Flandro's head as Bill Sperry encircles him!

Newcomers to Poky High were shocked to find they couldn't wear their pedal-pushers to the formal dances. Thank goodness, the Sophomore Daze Assembly set them straight! This event, held every fall, is sponsored by Key Club and Girls' Council. Its purpose is to tell the students about life at Poky High—the dances and parties, the clubs, activities, and special days.

SOPHOMORES DAZED!

Masters of ceremonies for the assembly are, left, Ann Deaton and Steve Martindale; right, Beverly Nielson and Jerry Lieberg. Their attire may be worn for any of the formal or dinner dances.

. . . AND YON

The artists of Mrs. Nye's home room dressed up their windows to fit the holiday spirit.

"Let go of my necktie!" says Bill Andersen to Kathy Wilson.

Do you remember when you were late and had to report to the attendance office?

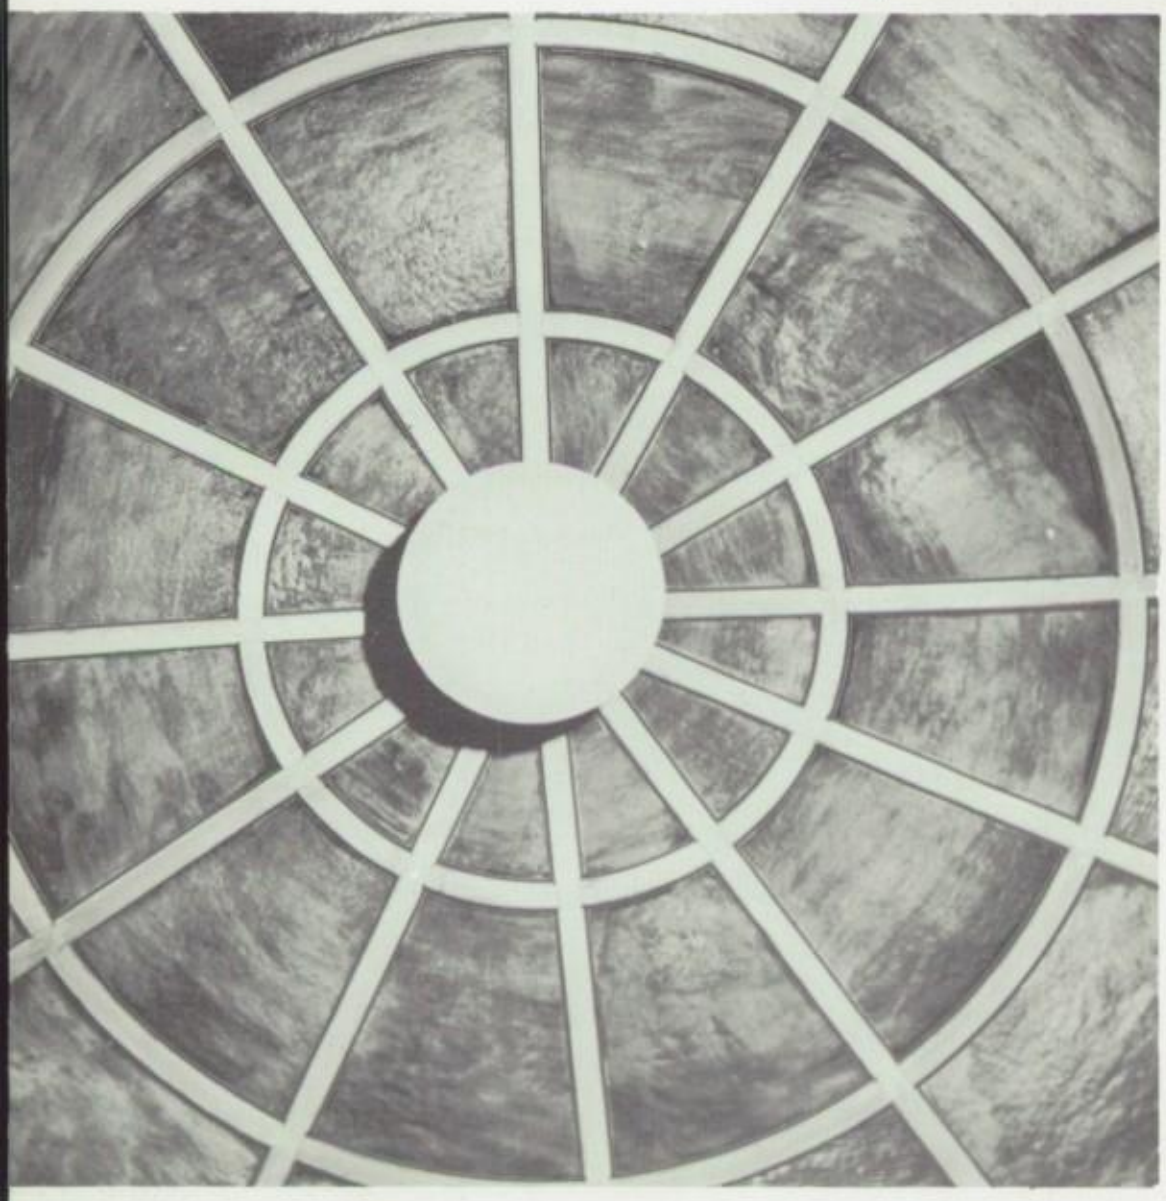
THERE IN CLASS

Most of these typing students seem oblivious to the fact that they are being photographed. Doris Lewis and Julie Petet are in the first row; Marilyn Scherbel and Joan Davis, in the second.



Has anyone ever looked up while standing just outside the library? By the way, this picture is upside down.

Kathy Hronek and Lars Baker seem to be having a joyous time.

Bill Sperry looks amused as his date, Judy Gochenour, is surprised by the photographer. In the background are Lars and Kathy—they do get around!

Decorations in pink and lavender plus a huge silver star, suspended from the ceiling, did indeed turn the gym into a "Wonderland by Night," the theme of this year's Band Ball.

Bill Duncan, band president, crowns the lovely queen, Sharon Diana.

SENIORS SHINE

Jim Chester and Amy Cox spend their time decorating the throne.

The Senior Ball is, perhaps, the dance most eagerly awaited all year. It is the one at which the seniors honor their royalty for the last time in their high school careers.

This year's theme, "Starlight and Roses," is carried out in pink and two shades of blue. Bright silver stars hang from the ceiling, roses adorn the walls, and the throne itself is fashioned in the shape of a giant pink rose.

The royalty display mixed emotions. First row, King Gary Glenisky and Queen Sheri Long; second row, attendants Judy Romney and Allen Andersen

Kathy Chambers and Gordon Wilks discuss a decorating problem while David Combs listens. Roger Rucker is working on the bandstand.

THE THESPIANS PLAY

GIRL CRAZY

Rose shines a little light on the matter as Louie and Lank exchange ideas in their campaign race for sheriff of Custerville County. The characters are, left to right—Millie, Darla Palmer; Sue, Linda Johnson; Dotty, Carol Bowser; Tammy, Kathy Lacy; Laura, Miriam Colaianni; Lank, Bruce Hopkins; Rose, Cheryl Burton; Louie, David Bevans.

Because of conditions in his father's will, Danny Churchill was forced to move to "El Buzzard Ranch" if he wished to gain his inheritance. Being a playboy at heart, he arranged for the desolate old ranch house to be transformed into a dude ranch. Danny meets Molly and falls in love with her. Meanwhile, Louie, Danny's eastern companion, is having problems of his own. He is running for sheriff against a tough hombre named Lank, who keeps stirring up trouble for him. Eventually, however, Louie becomes sheriff, Danny marries Molly, and life on the dude ranch goes on as usual.

"How could you suspect me, your old friend, of taking your wallet?" asks Sam Mason, played by Keith Gibbons, while Molly, played by Mary Lou Bollinger, and Danny Churchill, played by Roger Yates, looks on.

Chief Push-In-The-Face, alias Louie, is off and running as Lank investigates the disappearance of his election opponent Louie. Chief Push-In-The-Face is played by David Bevans, Lank by Bruce Hopkins, Pete by Charles Bieker and Eaglerock by Dan Lane.

THE THESPIANS FLY HIGH

"FLIGHT INTO DANGER"

"Flight 714, direct service to Los Angeles, leaving immediately through gate three" started one of the most suspenseful dramas ever presented in Poky High. The story was about an airplane trip in which both pilots and several passengers were food poisoned by their dinner. Luckily there was a doctor on board to care for the sick passengers and pilots, but the pilots were to remain unconscious so that the plane seemed doomed. There was, however, an ex-pilot aboard, Mr. Spencer, who had had a little flying experience during the war. Eventually after many suspenseful experiences, Spencer landed the plane and the ordeal was over.

VARIETY SHOW IS TOPS

"The Twelfth of Never" climaxed the most enchanting variety show in the history of Poky High. Comedy, music, love, and tragedy all played major rolls in the presentation.

"The Twelfth of Never" provided a beautiful theme for the Senior Choir variety show. The play, written and directed by Ben Berg and Beverly Nielsen, had many wonderful moments unfolding from the sunny shores of California.

Martin Lewis sent to Ireland for a mail-order bride, Kathy O'Brian. When she and her Aunt Suzanne arrive, she finds herself in love with Jeff Cable, the wealthy owner of the Ranchero Summer Resort. This story interwoven with several cthers provided a most enjoyable and enchanting show.

"It's a smelly subject", says Lester Higgins as Hilda Pumperdinkle entices him with "Give Me A Little Kiss". Walter Lee is pictured as Lester Higgins and Marla Seaton as Hilda Pumperdinkle.

Jeff Cable sings about his feelings towards a certain Kathy O'Brian in "It's Almost Like Being In Love." Jeff Cable is played by Larry Wintersteen.

Tony sings, "Everybody's Got A Home But Me" to his newly found love, Julie. Tony is played by Ron Andrews and Julie by Connie Bell.

Hilda is depressed when she finds her efforts are useless and she "Cain't Get A Man With A Gun." Marla Seaton is pictured as Hilda Pumperdinkle.

"I love Tony and I'm going to marry him", says Julie to her mother, Mrs. Finnley, who is strictly against their courtship. Connie Bell is pictured as Julie and Janet Oborn as Mrs. Finnley.

"But More I Cannot Wish You Than To Hope You Find Your Love This Day", sings Aunt Suzanne to her Irish niece, Kathy O'Brian. Karen Carter is pictured as Kathy O'Brian and LaDena Leuck as Aunt Suzanne

Willie Baxter and all the boys in the neighborhood are moonstruck the moment they meet cute, blonde, baby-talking Lola Pratt, who has come to the country for a summer visit. While Willie's father thinks Willie must be sick, his little sister Jane, gets some spiteful joy out of mimicking him.

When George Crooper arrives from Pennsylvania in his Winton Six, he takes it upon himself to make Lola his for the summer. Willie, however, has different ideas.

Soon, with the summer coming to an end, Willie realizes that he is about to lose Lola, but Genesis, who knows nothing about fixing a flat tire on a Winton Six, does know about life and love, and tells Willie what lies ahead for him. And what Genesis knows, he tells Willie.

The Poky High Key Club, the largest Key Club in the U. S. A., is one of the most active clubs in the high school. As a service organization, it participated in the sandbagging of the Portneuf River during the flood. Many of its members were also involved in the fund raising after the flood. Also worthy of mention are two other activities, the moving of more than 50,000 volumes from the old public library to the new and the unloading and loading of the Red Cross Bloodmobile. Helping their sponsoring organization, the Kiwanis Club, has also taken priorty in the club members' time. Key Club this year sponsored a Sweetheart Ball as one of the school activities and distributed programs for the Fifth District Basketball Tournament.

OUR SPECIALTY

THE STAFF TOILS

Without the help of Mrs. Berrett, business advisor, and Miss McAlister, editorial advisor, the staff would be at a loss many times.

Leon Hale does all the art work in the annual, including this year's cover.

Working on school life provides fascinating moments for Kathleen Donnelly and Pat Sharp.

Linda Herzog and Anita Richardson do the honors and awards section.

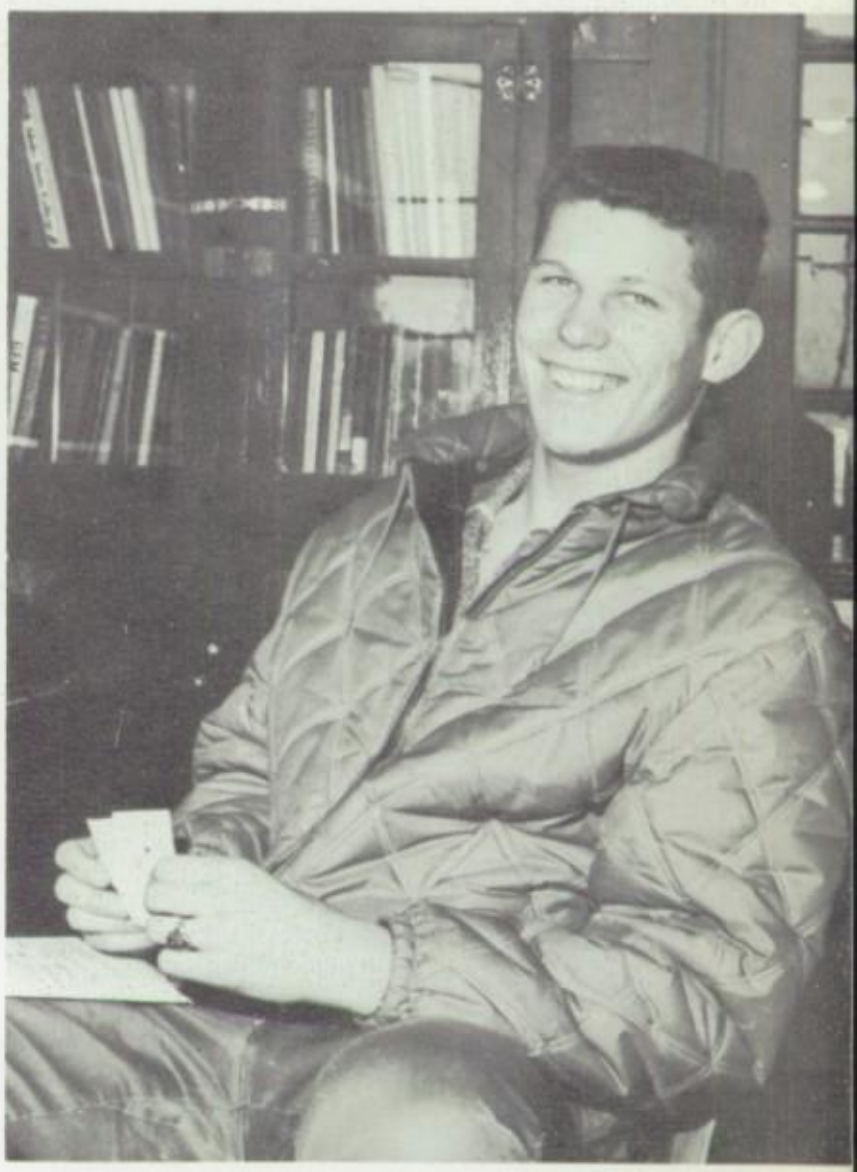
BUT IT'S WORTH IT

Index editor, Rick Miles, never makes big mistakes.



Doug Satterfield, assistant editor, doubles as sports editor.

Linda Whittle hopes the old annuals will give her new ideas for the organization pages.

Photographers, Kurt Camerud and Steve Kenison, spend much time taking pictures of the various school functions. Kurt also work on activities.

The business end of the annual is taken care of by Anita Richardson and Mike Smith.

HEADLINES NEWS

Chieftain editor for the second year is Pat Hall. It is her responsibility to see that the paper gets out on publication day.

The Chieftain is the official newspaper of Poky High. It keeps each student up to date on the various school events. On its pages are found all sorts of information from who's who to sports and from fashions to student opinion.

Advisor Melba Rae Barnett always finds assistant editor, Mike Athay, helpful in everything from sharpening pencils to setting up the Chieftain pages.

In this club you will find high scholarship, good character and leadership. This year the members offered tutoring for students desiring help with school work. The main social event of the year for the group was the banquet in the spring honoring the graduating seniors. In May Honor Society at an induction ceremony honored the newly elected members of National Honor Society.

RECEIVE NATIONAL HONORS

The first high school National Honor Society charter was granted in 1922. Today there are about 6,000 chapters, located in every state in the union, in the United States possessions, and even in some foreign countries. Those elected to membership must rank in the highest third of their class in scholarship, and must also stand high in leadership and service. This leadership and service may consist chiefly of intellectual leadership in the class. Fifteen per cent of the class is elected to membership in National Honor Society.

EXPERIENCE IS GAINED

Boys' State was a valuable experience in government for those who went. The boys from Pocatello held many important positions. Marvin Brown was governor and a delegate to Boy's Nation in Washington, D. C. Jerry Lieberg and Bill Duncan were party chairmen. Frank Lundburg and John Mauk were justices of the supreme court. Lars Baker was senate minority leader; Steve Martindale, lieutenant governor; and Arthur Graham, keynote speaker for the Gold Party. Pocatello delegates were elected to more state and party offices than delegates from any of the other cites represented there.

Girls' State delegates, Pat Hall and Beverly Nielson, spent a most enjoyable week at the College of Idaho at Caldwell where they gained valuable experience and a knowledge of the various functions of our government. They participated in governmental activities at the city, county, and state levels and took part in a mock legislature held at the state capitol. Beverly was recreation chairman and mail mistress of her city. She wrote her city song and was a committee chairman at the house of representatives. Pat was a city inspector, councilman, assistant minority leader of the house. She wrote and directed her city's skit presented during the session.

STUDENTS PROGRESS

BETTY CROCKER HOMEMAKER AWARD

Mitzi Dolbeer won the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Award this year based on a test taken with all the homemaking students in Poky High covering all fields of homemaking. Mitzi is now eligible for the state contest to be held in Boise, Idaho.

BAUSCH AND LOMB SCIENCE AWARD

The winner of the Bausch and Lomb Science Award this year was Arthur Graham, who received the highest scholastic standing in science subjects. Over 7000 schools present this handsome bronze medal in the spring. Honorary Science Award winners are eligible to compete for scholarships, sponsored by Bausch and Lomb, Inc., at the University of Rochester.

ROYAL ALLEN BROWN SCIENCE AWARD

Mary Ann Rice received the Royal Allen Brown Science Award this year. This award is presented by the estate of the late Mr. Royal Allen Brown, who taught chemistry in Pocatello High School for twenty-nine years. Mary Ann fulfilled the requirements of good character, loyaty, industry and completed successfully sufficient courses in required science.

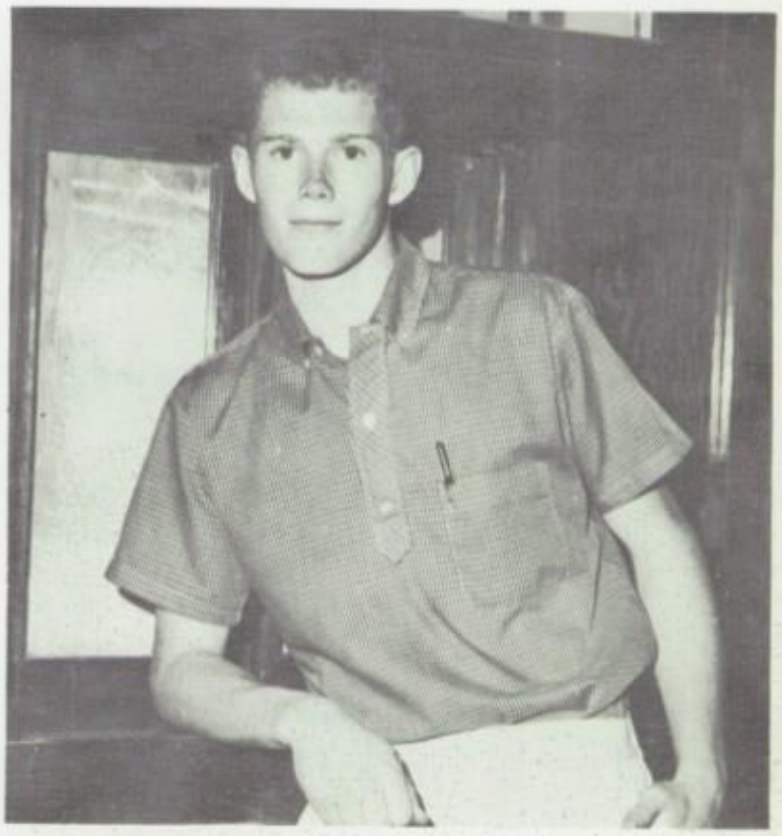
HONORS AND AWARDS

DAR GOOD CITIZENSHIP AWARD

Winner of the Daughters of American Revolution Good Citizen Award is Valon Gee. Valon was presented a "Good Citizen" pin by state regent, Mrs. C. H. Peake. Valon was selected on the basis of good citizenship, responsibility, service, leadership, and patriotism.

NATIONAL ORATORICAL CONTEST

The American Legion, Post 4, sponsored an oratorical contest, consisting of a ten to twelve minute prepared speech and four to six minutes extemporary speech on "The Consttution in a Changing World." John Mauk was the first place winner in district and second place winner in state.



ELKS MOST VALUABLE STUDENT

Two Pocatello High School seniors have received the 1962 leadership awards from the Elks' Club. They are Mary Ann Arms and Arthur Graham. Each was presented a $25 bond and were eligible for state competition. The students were judged on scholarship, citizenship, personality, leadership, and community activities.

NOMA Award winners are, left to right, first row—Cleophas Doster, Jay Morse, Doug Satterfield, Collette Reade, Barbara Yamada, Rhonda Knutti, Susan Brown. Second row—LaDeana Marker, Mary Jo Whitehead, Arlene Van Houten, Brenda Rupp, Carol Landeene, Margaret Streibel, Renee Egusquiza, Carol Johnson, Vicki Parrish. NOMAs not pictured are—Eileen Buck, Jeanne Green, Ellen Hall, Judy Nelson, and Lana Rupp.

This award is sponsored by the National Office Management Association. Six hundred words are selected each year by a committee from the National Office Management Association and submitted for study. Twice each year one hundred words are taken from this list as a test. Both juniors and seniors are eligible to take this test. Students who spell the words correctly earn and receive a NOMA spelling certificate.

ELKS YOUTH LEADERSHIP AWARD

Winners of the Idaho State Elks Association Youth Leadership Award for 1962 are Jerry Lieberg and Sheri Long, who also won the local and state awards. Judging was based on leadership, citizenship appreciation, perseverance, resourcefulness, and sense of honor. Applicants were required to submit a 300 word statement, a letter from a parent and letters of endorsement. Top prizes in the Elks Youth Leadership Contest are $1000 savings bonds for both the boy and girl winners. In addition to the national awards, two $100.00 savings bonds were awarded to them as state winners.

HIGH ACHIEVEMENT

NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLARSHIP

The winners of National Merit Scholarships and Certificates of Merit are selected on the basis of scores on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying test given in the spring of each year taken by incoming high school seniors. The semi-finalists are chosen on the basis of state quotas proportional to the number of high school seniors in each state. The 10,000 semi-finalists constitute one-half of one percent of the high school senior population. Our finalists are Mary Ann Rice and Wayne Kempe.

GENERAL MOTORS' SCHOLARSHIP

The selection of the winners of the General Motors' National Scholarship Plan is made by a group of leading educators representing various sections of the United States. The petition is open to the high school seniors who are citizens of the United States and plan to take the College Entrance Board Examination to compete for the General Motors' Awards. Scholarship plans offered by General Motors range from $200 to $2,000 per year depending on the financial needs of the students.

SOROPTIMIST GIRL OF THE MONTH

November, Sheri Long

December, Kathy Chambers

January, Diana Gallaway

Each year a group of senior girls who display qualities of leadership, citizenship, scholarship, and cooperation is nominated by the faculty as eligible to participate in the Soroptimist Girl of the Month Contest. Each contestant is asked to write out educational plans and vocational plans. Six girls are selected from the group by a committee from the local Soroptimist International Club, a service club for professional women. From the monthly winners the Soroptimist Girl of the Year is chosen and is awarded a $100 Scholarship to Idaho State College.

THE YEAR BEGINS

Once again it is Red and Blue Day at Poky High, and once again a pretty senior girl is chosen to reign over its festivities. Crowning Queen Kathy Chambers is Jerry Lieberg, senior class president. Behind them are Bill Duncan, Judy Romney, Margaret Streibel, Arthur Graham.

Drill team performs a colorful routine during the assembly. Pom poms add to the general excitement of the day.

Cheerleaders, too, play an important part. Here SueZann McMaster, Jimmy Contos, Andrea Neider lead a cheer.

STUDENTS ENJOY SCIENCE

Each spring all interested science students may enter a project in the science fair. These projects range from electronics to dental hygiene with all sorts of variations in between.

Jim Kanomata is shown with his wind tunnel which demonstrates the pressure in different parts of an airplane wing.

Stephens

Suh Myung Gil is Poky High's adopted Korean orphan. He has two sisters, Jung Sook and Jung Boon, and one brother, Myung Sik. This excerpt is from his letter dated February, 1962:

"Again the plan here issued a pair of sneakers, a pair of jeans and as well as Hwan 10,360 ($8.00) for us last month. Thanks."

This is one of those ridiculous triangles that despite its complete lack of individual wit, effervescence or context: that despite its lack of worthwhile news about fashion shoes for high school guys and gals: that despite its lack of outward merit, most seniors will read to the bitter end—probably sophomores and juniors, too.

Stay that way!
Love always
Vira

Vernon,
To a real good sober friend.
Ha! Ha! No to a real sweet kid.
Dorothy

Vernon,
You are very different, no good, and original, really you are quite the card. I hope that we can have twice as many laughs next year as we have had this year

Love ya,
Pat

Vernon,
I have only known you a short time but I consider you a very dependable friend. Maybe you can become better

Later,
Juliann Lewis

Vernon,
Hey, you are pretty regular guy! How did you ever get such an idea? You have a great knack for making people laugh and are lots of fun to be with!
Love,
Lorna

Vernon,

It's been really to know you this year you're a real cute kid. Have fun this summer.

Lots of luck

Maria DuDonald

Vernon
I sure have enjoyed your company
Bonnie: that dance was a little too much for me
I sure be tired
I stand or see hope summer.

Love ya
Betty

Vern

It's been a real
kick in the rectum.
We'll have a blast
next year.

Vernon,

Brother Joyce — So
nice to see that you're feeling so well. Always keeping the "Word of This-dom" and all. Be good and keep in up and
you'll be Bishop before long.

Sister

Vern
Hi! Well
it's sure
been fun
this year,
huh? You're a wonderful person. Good luck always

Dear Dawn

Be a real sweet kid and take care of yourself. Keep the home fires burning. Love ya always

Blondie

Dear Kid,

Well one year of high school is gone and I've sure enjoyed it. Now to go, live summer vacation and have a real sweet year. I hope to have your friendship this year and more next year. Well see ya around sometime. Lots of luck for money
